Matrimonial.

The marriage of Mr. Charles Alfred Duncan, of Cincinnati, and Miss Caroline Kenney Butler, of this city, was celebrated Tuesday afternoon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Butler.

The home was handsomely decorated with chrysanthemums of pink and white, and the ceremony was performed under a canopy of ferns, by Rev. E. H. Ruthford.

The wedding music was very happily rendered by Mrs. Albert Mitchell, who never played better than on this occasion. "Call Me Thine Own," and other selections were rendered during the ceremony.

The bride's trousseau consisted of an old rose broadcloth gown, trimmed with cream lace applique, and heavier bands. She carried a large bunch of chrysanthemums of the color of her gown. The groom wore the conventional black.

Few brides have received as many handsome presents as did this one. They came from every State in the Union and numbered more than two hundred. Among them was a very graceful piece of statuary, the gift of a firm in Italy. Belonging to a prominent family, and with hundreds of friends whose pleasure it was to remember her, the presents were numerous and costly.

The bride is a very great favorite with all who knew her and the congratulations and best wishes of her friends go with her and may every happiness be hers.

The groom is a prosperous business man of the Queen City, and has numerous friends both there and abroad.

The bridal party left on the evening train for Nashville, Tenn., where they will visit the groom's relatives. Upon their return to Paris, will be at home to their friends with the family of Mr. Victor Shipp.

In this city, yesterday, by Rev. J. S. Sweeney, James H. Taylor and Mrs. Mollie Taylor were married. They are both of this county.

There is two weddings to come off soon in Paris, that the News man has tips on, and will be something in the shape of a surprise to the friends of the contracting parties.

The announcement is made of the engagement of Mr. Edward McDowell, of Cynthia, and Miss Rosa Pickett, of Maysville. The marriage will be celebrated in January. Miss Pickett is the daughter of Dr. Thomas E. Pickett, and is one of Maysville's most charming and accomplished young ladies. Mr. McDowell is the son of the late Dr. Hervey McDowell of Cynthia.

The wedding of Mr. L. B. Vice and Miss Rinnie Shankland is announced to take place at the home of the bride, in Carlisle, on December 4th.

Capt. Nimrod L. Norton, of Texas, and Mrs. Fannie Porter, of Millersburg, were married at Memphis, yesterday.

South Carolina Interstate and West Indian Exposition.

The above Exposition, one of the greatest ever held in the south, will open December 1st 1901, and continue until June 1st, 1902. Very attractive rates have been arranged from all points to Charleston, and the schedules via the Southern Railway, with its own rails the entire distance, are particularly convenient; and any agent of that line will give full information upon application.

Reliable and Gentle.

"A pill's a pill," says the saw. But there are pills and pills. You want a pill which is certain, thorough and gentle. Mustn't gripe. DeWitt's Little Early Risers fill the bill. Purely vegetable. Do not force but assist the bowels to act. Strengthen and invigorate. Small and easy to take. W. T. Brooks.

The Children's Friend.

You'll have a cold this Winter. Maybe you have one now. Your children will suffer, too. For coughs, croup, bronchitis, grip and other Winter complaints, One Minute Cough Cure never fails. Acts promptly. It is very pleasant to the taste and perfectly harmless. C. B. George, Winchester, Ky., writes: "Our little girl was attacked with croup late one night, and was so hoarse she could hardly speak. We have her a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure. It relieved her immediately and she went to sleep. When she awoke next morning she had no signs of hoarseness or croup. W. T. Brooks.

Stop the Blight

It is a sad thing to see fine fruit trees spoiled by the blight. You can always tell them from the rest. They never do well afterwards but stay small and sickly.

It is worse to see a blight strike children. Good health is the natural right of children. But some of them don't get their rights. While the rest grow big and strong one stays small and weak.

Scott's Emulsion can stop that blight. There is no reason why such a child should stay small. Scott's Emulsion is a medicine with lots of strength in it—the kind of strength that makes things grow.

Scott's Emulsion makes children grow, makes them eat, makes them sleep, makes them play. Give the weak child a chance. Scott's Emulsion will make it catch up with the rest.

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle.
